RE: 2007 TSUEAA National Election

It is time once again to elect new officers for the Tennessee State University Engineering Alumni Association. The current term for the following elected positions will end on November 3rd, 2007.

President	Charles K. Flack. (Eligible for re-election)
Vice President	William "Bill" Fields (Eligible for re-election)
Recording Secretary	Martinez Chapman-Addae (Eligible for re-election)
Corresponding Secretary	Michael Carn (Eligible for re-election)
Treasurer	Marvin S. Evans, Jr. (Eligible for re-election)
Parliamentarian	Vacant

This memorandum is to solicit from you and the members of the TSUEAA names of prospective candidates for the positions listed above. I am asking that you also provide copies of this correspondence to all financially active members and CoETCS Alumni, and encourage them to participate in this very important nomination process. Please ask the nominee(s) to submit a completed copy of the attached biographical form confirming his or her willingness to accept the nomination. I encourage all to help us identify at least two nominees for each of the positions.

All nominating materials should be mailed or delivered on or before Friday, October 12th, 2007 to:
